

407 Glynburn Road KENSINGTON PARK SA

3 1

White ghost Gum Trees form a wonderful entrance to this traditional Bungalow home. Spacious rooms, all with high ceilings gives this home a wonderful open feeling. Set on a large allotment of 640 m2 with outdoor entertaining areas to the front and rear.

The residence has been modernized with a contemporary, yet traditional feel. The large entrance hallway leads to the formal sitting room and dining room, both with original open fire places. The dining room continues through to a wonderful kitchen with quality appliances. All three bedrooms are very spacious, one with an open fireplace.

The main bedroom is adjoining the living area with views of the front garden and the magnificent gum tree.

Through from the dining room is the informal living area
