This new home has a BONUS on having two separate living areas, three bedrooms plus a study room or possible small fourth bedroom and two stunning bathrooms. The main bedroom has a walk in robe and the second and third bedrooms both have built in robes.

Upon entry the home has a great feel about it. The entrance hall leads to the main bedroom suite with ensuite and walk in robe. This generous room has an outlook to the front of the residence.

The centrally located formal living room is ideally located adjacent to the study or fourth bedroom this area works very well for family living.
