This property is a well-built home, and has a great look about it from the roadway and it includes many features, those being the three excellent living areas the home offers.

An ideal home for any buyer that would like to entertain on a grand scale.

The home itself has an entrance hall way that leads to the formal sitting room of the residence. This generous room has an outlook to the front of the home and the hall way further leads through to the large living, dining and kitchen
