The flexible floor plan will suit buyers of all ages and offers excellent living accommodation over one level. There are 2 separate living areas including a formal lounge overlooking the 2nd courtyard and a very large open plan family and dining area. Adjacent this hub of the home is an attractive kitchen, well equipped with quality appliances, a generous breakfast bar and plenty of storage space. This fantastic light and bright space flows directly out to the huge outdoor undercover alfresco area, perfect for family living and entertaining friends. The back yard features lots of room for the kids to play and for the keen gardener to add their personal flair to the landscaped gardens.
