This home offers a very flexible floor plan for family living or couples seeking to acquire a designer lifestyle home.

The property adjoins a council reserve at the rear and has a lovely backdrop of trees and shrubs that make this completely different to the majority of new homes.

A lovely garden setting with a very desirable balcony and decking area gives this property a great feel.

The property includes a generous open plan living area with direct access to the balcony with stainless steel wiring, giving this a magnificent outlook to the reserve. Adjacent to
