The location is excellent. Only a short commute to the city. Close to Norwood Parade. The groups private driveway is directly opposite Payneham oval & playground. There is plenty of open green space for wind down walks at your door step. Payneham is a hot spot for property with potential for excellent growth.

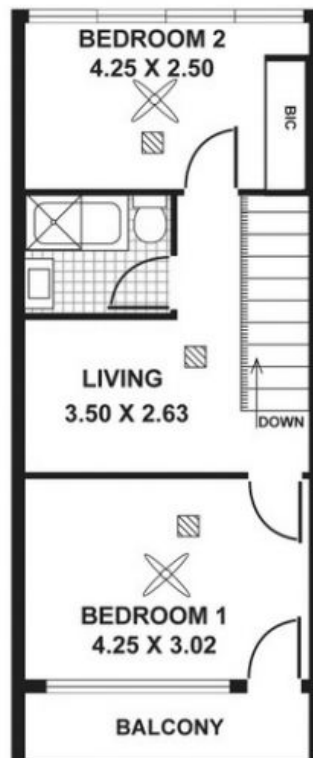

The moment you enter the home you get a wonderful feeling of open space. Natural light floods through the stylish floor to ceiling windows and high lofty ceilings create a great ambience. The solid brick construction will appeal to buyers and the lovely private back yard is perfect for outdoor entertaining with family and friends.
